

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., March 12, 1888.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,

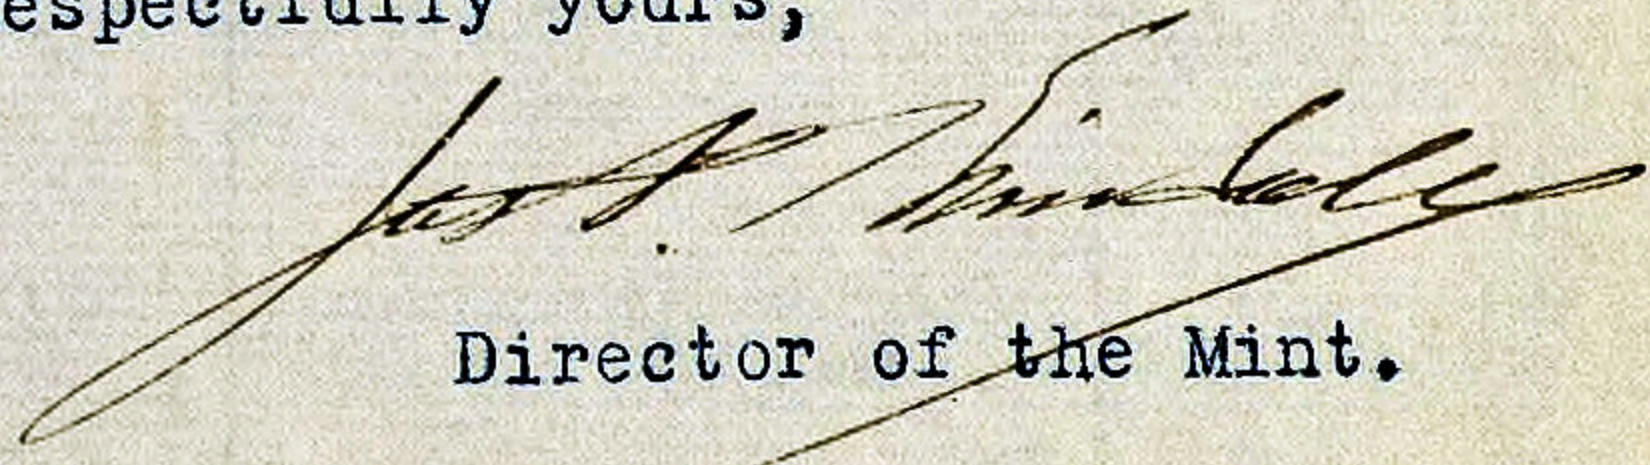

Superintendent U.S. Mint,

Philadelphia.

Sir:

Without indicating the proper mode of acquiring proof coins for the cabinet of the mint at Philadelphia, it is necessary that all coins struck, for any purpose whatsoever, be reported on the coinage statements. Please correct accordingly the statements returned.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 150

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
March 12, 1888

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia.

Sir:

Without indicating the proper mode of acquiring proof coins for the cabinet of the mint at Philadelphia, it is necessary that all coins struck, for any purpose whatsoever, be reported on the coinage statements. Please correct accordingly the statements returned.

Respectfully yours,
James P. Kimball
Director of the Mint.